OPINION AND ORDER

RICHARD J. SULLIVAN, District Judge:

On May 5, 2015, the Court issued a case management plan and scheduling order that directed the parties to complete all discovery by August 27, 2015. (Doc. No. 44.) The Court is now in receipt of the attached letter from Plaintiff, dated June 23, 2015 and received June 30, 2015, requesting an extension of thirty (30) days to complete discovery on the grounds that he has been transferred to several different facilities recently. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Defendants shall respond to Plaintiff's request by July 6, 2015.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 30, 2015
New York, New York

Re: Gregory Garvin v. Warden Luis Rivera, et al.,
13 Civ. 7054 (RJS) [rel. 13 Civ. 6090 (RJS)]

Your Honor:

I am the Plaintiff in the above-referenced matter. Plaintiff write to respectfully request: (1) that the Court accept my formal request for an enlargement of time of 30 days to perfect the Defendants' rather your Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order.

Your Honor, in my request I wish to have granted. I have been transferred to several diferent facilies, to where my mail has been off schedule in the process of me receiving such important documents forwarded by the Defendants' and from the Courts. I have received mail just last week that was dated almost a month in a half and throughout the stagnation of the arrival of my mail, I do not wish for my case to be dismissed on that regard.

Your Honor, if my request can be granted I pray that I will be able to continue on with the proceedings the best way I possibly can to avoid any more unexpected delays on my part regarding the above-referenced matter.

I declare under penalty of perjury the forgoing is true and correct.
